

BIOGRAPHY

Aric Bostick is considered among the nation's leading motivational speakers and success trainers—having inspired and equipped more than a half million people from all walks of life to believe in themselves by setting higher goals and achieving more fulfilling dreams.

Aric passionately infuses energy, engagement, and performance into the workplace and beyond—by delivering rich content infused with humor, inspiration, and practical strategies in his high-energy, world-class keynotes, training seminars, and educational programs.

After experiencing his own setbacks, Aric's personal and professional mission became to guide others in overcoming their own personal stories—using their experiences to ignite greater achievement and happiness. As Aric states: 'My philosophy is simple: When you change your "HAVE TO" to "GET TO" life and work get better in a hurry! We owe it to others and ourselves to live and give to the fullest!'

As the bestselling author of the book, FIRE UP! Success, Aric teaches his winning seven-step formula for leaders and employees to experience success in the workplace and beyond—starting wherever they are to build a no-excuse, high-energy path to their goals. Aric shows you how to maximize your organization's performance, productivity and customer service excellence.

Some of Aric's clients include: TransAmerica Investments & Insurance, MedAmerica Billing Services, Human Resource Southwest Conference, Alabama State Society of Human Resource Professionals, Meeting Planners International, Society of Government Meeting Professionals, South Florida Meeting Planners Association, Houston Meeting Planners, Association Texas Medical Management Association, National School Nutrition Association, Practice Management Institute, Travel Alberta Canada, Mr. Rooter, Cornerstone Credit Union, Dallas Children's Medical Hospital, and Big Brothers/Big Sisters.
